

What to Bring List - Staff

Packing for being in camp...

Clothes

- pants & shorts
- swimsuits (2 is wise)
- fleece or wool sweaters
- long sleeve shirts
- T-shirts
- underwear
- socks
- close-toed shoes
- sandals with heel straps
- laundry bag

Not-so-Normal Clothes (optional, but encouraged)

- anything you can find in the thrift store
- anything you can find in your grandparents closet
- anything that makes you laugh

Nice Clothes

- white dress shirt for Sunday
- light colored khaki pants for Sundays, Opening & closing Days
- something nice for the staff banquet (7/14)

Bedding

- warm blankets
- bed sheets
- pillow
- pajamas

Toiletries

- bath towels (more than one)
- wash cloths
- personal grooming articles (this includes soap and deodorant, you know who I'm talking to)
- shower clogs/flip-flops

Other stuff

- games, books, and other items that would be fun for activities with campers

SLEEPING BAGS, SLEEPING PADS, LONG UNDERWEAR and RAIN SUITS can be ordered through Camp Manito-wish. Call us for information. NAME TAPES: If you would like to order nametapes, contact Sterling Name Tape (1-800-654-5210) and mention 1626 S99 when ordering.

...and for being on trail

Wet Clothes

- T-shirt
- swim trunks/swimsuit
- wool socks
- wet boots - lightweight boots that offer good ankle support for wet, muddy & rocky terrain
- long underwear top and bottom
- hat w/brim
- rain coat and pants
- underwear

Dry Clothes

- T-shirt
- wool/fleece sweater
- long underwear shirt
- long pants
- wool socks
- dry shoes
- wool/fleece hat
- underwear

Other Stuff

- sleeping bag w/ stuff sack - 20-30 degree rating is best
- sleeping pad or Crazy Creek
- sunscreen (no aerosol)
- flashlight
- sunglasses
- lip balm
- toothbrush/Toothpaste
- feminine hygiene products

Optional

- mosquito head net
- bug spray (no aerosol)
- bandana
- journal
- camera
- book

The items on this list are basics based on a 3-9 day canoe trip. Other trips types, trip lengths and personal styles may vary. If anything, this is a great start, but it's always good to ask around. Camp supplies gear not listed, you can bring your own at your own risk.

LABEL EVERYTHING! ESPECIALLY YOUR SOCKS!
WE'RE NOT JOKING.